

CASTLE ROCK BASEBALL

Press Release

June 13, 2014

Castle Rock High School baseball coach Joe Bair resigned today. He will not be doing any interviews. Below are some quotes if you are interested.

"It's my Father's Day gift to myself. Life is too short to be unhappy and resigning has been very liberating. I don't want to live with bitterness in my heart."

"I am truly thankful to the players, coaches and Castle Rock community, in general, for their support over the past four years."

"I'm excited for the next chapter in my coaching career. I don't know when and where that will be, but that in itself, is fun to think about!"
