

Polars Win Sno-Bowl, 12 - 6

Pictured here are the members of the Polars, this year's victors in the annual Sno-Bowl contest. From left to right: (front row) Marty Simon, Dick Dietz, Jerry Bohnsack; Tom Kafka, quarterback; Chuck Bruzek, Russ Bartyzal. (Second row) Charlie Chromy, Bob Wieland, Mike Remes, Dick Milinkovich, Dick Chromy, Wayne Schoenbauer, Bob Vanasek, Randy Rybak. (Third row) Greg Bilek, Virgil Pint, Tom Bates, Bill Hennes, John Svoboda, Rick Bruzek, Ed Maruska, Frank Shima, Mike Miller, Amby Giesen. (Fourth row) Carl Koenig, Dick Jonckowski, Al Vanasek, "Booger" Vanasek, Dick Krava, LeRoy Mamer, Randy Hruska, Tom Straiton, unidentified.

by STEVE MICKUS,
Sno-Bowl Commissioner

In one of the most hotly contested Sno-Bowl games in recent years, Bob Vanasek's Polar squad defeated Rick Vanasek's Ptarmigans by a score of 12 to 6 in Memorial Park on Saturday, Dec. 26.

Both Polar scores came on runs by the game's most valuable player, Tom Kafka. The Ptarmigans got on the board via a Rick Vanasek to Chuck Kartak pass for 40 yards.

The temperature at game time was unusually high and the spirited Polar squad rewarded owner Bob Vanasek with his first victory.

The usual post-game celebration took place at Rock's and game awards were voted on. After a spirited balloting, Kafka was declared

